

Sexual Assault Awareness Month

List of Events

Friday, April 17th

- * Jeans-For-Justice Day:
Wear jeans to support The Victim Services Program and raise awareness of sexual violence. Call Family Services Incorporated at 814-944-3583 to participate and receive your teal ribbon.
- * Clothesline Project Shirt Making Session:
Join us at Family Services Incorporated between 12:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. to witness our powerful display of color-coded shirts and jeans created by survivors and family members of victims. Shirts, jeans, and additional materials will be available for those who wish to create an item for display on our clothesline.
- * Eat to End Sexual Violence:
Dine at local restaurants on April 17th to raise money for the Victim Services Program. Stay tuned for a list of participating restaurants or go to www.familyservicesinc.net.

Friday, April 24th

- * Lunch & Learn:
Learn more about sexual violence, how to prevent it, how to help survivors connect with crucial counseling and other support services, and how our community can work together to end sexual violence. This event will take place at the Duncansville Community Center from 11 a.m - 1 p.m. Space is limited! Registration is required. Please call Family Services Incorporated at 814-944-3583 to register for this event.

All Month Long

- * Flush Out Sexual Violence Restroom Campaign:
Awareness flyers will be posted on the back of stall doors in the restrooms of areas businesses, schools, and medical facilities.
- * Law Enforcement Teal Ribbon Campaign:
Teal ribbons will be displayed on Law Enforcement vehicles throughout Blair County to reinforce the fact that our community remains united in the fight against crime.
